From New York. the following doleful account of the fighting be low Petersburg: HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF NORTHERN VA.

February 6. To Gen. S. Cooper: The enemy moved a strong force yesterday to Hatcher's Run. Part of his infantry, with Gregg's cavalry, crossed and proceeded on the Vaughn road, the infantry to Cat Tail creek, the cavalry to Dinwiddie Court House. There its advance encountered a portion of our caval ry, and retired in the afternoon. Part of Hill's and Gordon's troops demonstra ted against the enemy on the left of Hatcher's Run, near Armstrong's Mill. Finding him entrenched, they withdrew after dark. During the night the force that had advanced beyond the creek returned to it, and were reported to be recrossing this morning.

Pegram's division moved to the right bank of the creek to reconnoitre, when it was vigorously attacked. The battle was obstinately contested for several hours, but General Pegram being killed while bravely encouraging his men, and Colonel Hoffman wounded, some confusion oc curred, and the division was pressed back to its

Evans' division was ordered by General Gor don to the support of Pegram's, and charged the enemy, forcing him back, but was in turn compelled to retire. Mahone's division arriving, the enemy was driven rapidly to the defences on Hatcher's run. Our loss is reported to be small, but that of the enemy is supposed to be great. R. E. LER. (Signed) The Tribune's special from headquarters, 7th, says: Among the wounded in the fight between the 5th corps and the enemy, on the Boydton plank road, last night, were General Ayres, commanding the 2d division of the 5th corps, in the shoulder, severely; General Guynn, commanding the 3d brigade and 2d division, in the heel, slightly-still on duty; Captain Ganthrop, Adjt.

This gain, as I have said, brings us the Boydton plank road, and within artillery range of the Southside railroad. Thus Lee has again been out-generaled and another Yankee trick played upon the main army
